

POLICY FOR DETERMINATION OF MATERIALITY OF INFORMATION OR EVENT

1. Introduction

Regulation 30 of the SEBI (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015 (“Listing Regulations, 2015”) mandates that every listed entity shall make disclosures of any event or information which, in the opinion of its Board of Directors, is material.

The aim of this Policy is to specify broad criteria the Board ought to keep in mind in determining materiality of an information or event.

This Policy is effective from 1st December, 2015.

2. Determination of materiality of an event/ information

2.1 In determining the materiality of a company information or an event, the Board will be guided by the provisions enunciated in various statutes from time to time for disclosure in the public domain. However, information/events listed in Regulation 30 read with Schedule III of the Listing Regulations, 2015, as amended from time to time, will, ipso facto, be termed material. The current list is attached in Annexures I and II.

2.2 Annexure-II of this document specifies events / information that requires disclosure, if material. Materiality will be determined in these cases should any of the following conditions be satisfied:

- a) where the event/information impacts sales and it is likely to have an impact of 10% or more of the consolidated gross turnover as per the Company’s last audited annual consolidated accounts;
- b) where the event/information impacts the Company’s Profit Before Tax (PBT) to the extent of 10% or more of the consolidated PBT of the Company as per its last audited annual consolidated accounts;
- c) where the event/information impacts the Company’s consolidated assets/liabilities to the extent of 10% or more as per the last audited annual consolidated accounts.

The following further factors will also be considered for determining materiality of an event / information for the purposes of Annexure-II:

- the omission of an event / information that might result in discontinuity or alteration of information already in the public domain; or
- the omission of an event / information which might result in significant market reaction, shared this omission come to light at a later date; or
- The omission of an event / information, whose value or the expected impact in terms of value, exceeds the lower of the following:

- i. two (2) percent of turnover, as per the last audited consolidated financial statements of the Company;
 - ii. two (2) percent of net worth, as per the last audited consolidated financial statements of the Company, except in case the arithmetic value of the net worth is negative;
 - iii. five (5) percent of the average of absolute value of profit or loss after tax, as per the last three audited consolidated financial statements of the Company; or
- any event/ information, which if not disclosed promptly may lead to creation of a false market in the securities of the Company; or
 - the event / information represents a significant shift in strategy and is an exit from, or entry into, a significant line of business; or
 - any other event / information which the Board of Directors of the Company considers to be material.

2.3 Important as paragraphs 2.1 and 2.2 are or would be for determining materiality, the two overarching considerations for qualification as material event or information will always constitute the following:

- i) events / information must be of an exceptional nature to qualify as material.
- ii) events / information in the ordinary course of the Company's business will not be considered material.

In other words, the requirements of paragraphs 2.1 and 2.2 will always be subject to the provisions of paragraph 2.3.

3. Authority:

The Key Managerial Personnel of the Company are severally authorised for determining materiality of event/ information as specified in Annexure II of this Policy.

The Whole-time Director, Chief Financial Officer and the Company Secretary of the Company are severally authorised for disclosing such material events/information to the stock exchange(s).
